Cargo Supervisor Duties & Responsibilities:-

- It's good to understand the role of a cargo supervisor before learning about cargo supervisor job responsibilities.
- Their primary role is to manage the logistical back-end of the airline and transport the passengers' belongings safely while making it an efficient and secure handling process.

- A cargo supervisor's job responsibilities include the following.
- ✓ A cargo supervisor is in charge of overseeing the entire process of loading, unloading and securing the baggage or cargo.
- ✓ They check if the service staff have tagged the items with the correct labels.
- ✓ This is especially important for fragile and dangerous goods. There are proper safety measures in place for cargo supervisors to follow accordingly.
- ❖ They also help calculate the weight of the cargo to allocate space within the cargo aircraft efficiently.
- ❖ They perform these calculations by using various weight and volume measurement tools or by analyzing other physical characteristics of the cargo items.
- ❖ This helps them plan the cargo's quantity and orientation, including the plane's center of gravity. Sometimes, they join the airline crew members onboard the plane to supervise the handling of the cargo.
- ❖ A cargo supervisor works closely with the ground crew and employees from different departments on a daily basis.
- ❖ Strong teamwork within the company can help achieve better business performance in the long term, as work processes become more efficient and stable.
- ❖ To do so, maintaining a good relationship with company staff and management is key.
- ❖ Empathies with both party's needs and concerns to achieve a proper balance that boosts company morale and performance simultaneously.
