With over five years of hands-on experience managing transportation operations, fleet management, and team supervision—most recently with Alsaif Transport in the Aramco Department, KSA—I bring a proven track record of improving operational efficiency, reducing transportation costs, and maintaining the highest standards of safety and compliance.

In my current role, I oversee the planning and coordination of transportation schedules, driver supervision, and route optimization using SaudiEx, World Tracking, and Safee GPS systems. These systems have enabled me to enhance real-time visibility, improve delivery times, and achieve measurable cost savings. My focus on data-driven decision-making, driver safety, and customer satisfaction has consistently contributed to streamlined operations and stronger client relationships.

My academic background includes an MSc in Mass Communication and Media Studies from Hazara University and a bachelor's degree in commerce from the University of Karachi, supported by professional certifications such as an OSHA Safety Diploma and a Diploma in Information Technology (DIT). This diverse educational foundation has strengthened my communication, analytical, and technological skills—key assets for managing cross-functional teams and implementing process improvements.

Beyond my operational expertise, I am passionate about training and development. I have successfully planned, designed, and delivered training programs to enhance driver performance, compliance awareness, and safety culture across teams. My strong interpersonal and leadership skills allow me to foster collaboration, motivate staff, and ensure that performance targets are consistently met.

I am confident that my combination of technical knowledge, leadership experience, and dedication to continuous improvement would make me a valuable addition to your team. I welcome the opportunity to discuss how my experience and capabilities can contribute to your company's ongoing success.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of an interview.

Yours sincerely,
